

Please do not allow for the weakening of the Don Not Call lists. If the Consumer Banking Association is successful, this will open the door for all telemarketers to challenge the regulation. Consumers have already decided to opt-out of receiving unsolicited phone calls.